

ECONOMICS

Welcome to the Benedictine College Economics Department. Our mission is to provide students with a fundamental understanding of our present-day economic system. We have several offerings that will help prepare students to pursue careers in such diverse fields as business, academia, government service, and law. Below you will find the major and minors offered by the department. If you have any questions, please contact the department chair or an economics department faculty member.

Programs

Bachelor

- Economics (BA)

Minor

- Economics and Politics Minor
- Economics Minor